

Redacted (personal info)

Vancouver Maritime Museum,
1905 Ogden Ave.,
Vancouver, B. C. V6J 1A3

Gentlemen:

In late January, I visited your Museum and received a very courteous tour of St. Roch by a lady attendant to whom I mentioned that I was an acquaintance of the former Cook of the St. Roch.

Evidently, it was assumed he was deceased as he had not attended a reunion of the crew members when they convened a few years ago.

On my return home, I contacted Mr. George Dickens (the cook) who resides at 169 St. George Street, West Saint John, N. B. E2M 2A9 - Telephone 672-2260. He was very pleased to see the pictures I had taken of the galley and stated it appeared exactly as it was when he had last seen it. He is planning a trip to Vancouver in the near future to visit his nephew and most assuredly St. Roch.

I just finished reading "The Big Ship" written By the Captain - Henry A. Larsen and found it extremely interesting.

Thank you for a very memorable visit to the St. ROCH.

Yours very truly,

Ronald F. Brown

Ronald F. Brown
(Capt. R.F. Brown)

RFB/wc

new info neg. 4/10/84