SUBJECT: George Dickens, St. Roch Cook in 1944

EUREKA! We've found the elusive cook. This a.m. I had a tour of three gentlemen. Two of them were from New Brunswick, brothers George Brown and R. F. Brown. The latter is related by marriage to George Dickens. Mr. Dickens is alive and well (about 70 yrs. young), living in Saint John. Mr. Brown left his own address and that of Dicken's neice. Have I your permission to contact this lady by mail and get Dicken's address? Hopefully, Dickens will enlighten us on the real condition of the galley and his cabin, and his side of other stories we have heard.

For the record, here are the addresses:
